The Major and Council officials, with the Chamber of Commerce representatives, proceeded into the Sound on a special steamer and boarded the Ravinaa, when compliments and congratulations were exchanged between the town authorities and Captain Stewart, who remarked that the change had his hearty approval, as it would relieve captains of enormous anxiety during the latter part of the voyage.

Mr Frederick John Angier, the Founder, Proprietor, and Editor of this Paper, whose death occurred suddenly on the 20th alt., on board the P. and O. Company's steamer Clyde, just before her arrival at Aden, will be remembered by many old residents of China as for back as the year 1843, when his connection with that country first commenced. He went to Hongkong in the Lady Amherst, troopship, and saw our now flourishing colony when the merchants were very few in number, and the marks of progress were absont. Soon after his arrival on the island he entered the service of the Oriental Bank as cashier, and in his third year of service was made accountant of the branch. Being offered most advantageous terms by Messrs. Syme, Muir, and Co., however, he joined them. After the failure of the firm Mr Angier, together with Mr Allanson, established themselves as shipping and commission merchants at Canton and Hongkong, under the style of Angier and Allanson. In 1853, after a residence of ten years in China, he paid a short visit to England, returning to Canton: in 1854. In the following year his hithertosuccessful business met with severe reverses, and the anxiety and strain so impaired his health as to necessitate another trip to England in 1857, -via America.

The case of threatening to shoot at the Lyceum Theatre, which we noticed yester day, (7th) has been disposed of. The mar Ferry, who appears to have been drunk at the time, was brought before Count di Luca, the Italian Minister, and Mr. Hass, the acting Italian Consul, this morning, and after the full circumstances in connection with the charge were entered into, the Court sentenced the prisoner to 12 day's imprisonment, and deportation; and the weapon, which is now in the hands of the Italian Minister, will be consficated.

1st February. This city has been very free from destructive fires for the past few years, but one occurred a few night ago. It was a very thickly settled portion of the city, but, fortunately, it was so hemmed in by high walls that it only destroyed a few houses. The destruction of life, I am sorry to say, was more severe. Three persons, a young man with his wife and child, were burned to death. It is apposed that they were killed by the explosion of a small stock of gun-power which his father kept on hand to gived to gunners in exchange for the game they supplied him with. He kept a gameshop. The fire companies and soldiers were very effective in their efforts. foreign engines and several native ones were on the spot. The discipline of the companies and the orderly conduct of the crowd were worthy of high commendation. The sight was quite picturesque, as every man carried a lantern, and many of them held in their hands the little white-and-blue flags which At Castletown - Renneigh threatening of this they state that the bodies continued to burn after the rest of the fire had been

Memorialist strongly deprecates my such modification, which would only, in his opinion, fill the provincial prisons to overflowing, give a great stimulus to crimo and lawlessness of every kind, and, in a word, he directly opposed to the maxim that he end of punishment is the abolition of the penal law. The arguments urged are almost dentical with those put forward by the Military Governors of Kirin and Johole in their recent reports on the same subject. December 15 .- Totaln Yil-ying, Governor of Fukien, represents that situate in the township of Ta-chia between the Districts of Chang-hua and Hain-chu, Taiwan, is a marsh some 6,200 feet in diameter, which overflows towards the end of spring and levastates the surrounding country, frequently causing considerable loss of life among . merchants and others journeying in those parts. On the occasion of Memorialist's recent visit to Taiwan, a strong representation on the subject was made to him by the officials and the gentry, in consequence of which he proceeded to the marsh in question and accurately surveyed its conditions. It lies not far from the sea, and is unnavigable, being dry at certain seasons and flooded at others, whilst it is too broad to render the construction of a bridge over it a feasible undertaking. After long consideration, Memorialist detormined to dig a channel on the sea side of the marsh, and conduct the water of the marsh into it by means of two long and anbatantial embankments in the shape of the character A. The embankments will be 30 or 40 feet broad, and will be constructed of circular bamboo and wire crates, filled up with stones and rubble taken from the marsh. On the surface will be planted bambeo and other trees, which an course of time, by striking their roots deep into the embankment, will be of great service in solidifying and strengthening it; Momorialist's plan was highly approved of by the officials, gentry, and elders to whom he communicated its details; and they promised to furnish, during the interval between sowing and reaping, gratuitous labour in the prosecution of the undertaking. The funds required to defray the cost of the crates will be taken from the Coast Defence Fund, and Memorialist will, towards the close of the year, cross over igain to Taiwan to be present at the commencement of the operations. December 16.—En Fu reports the appointment of a Captain in the Chinese army to perform the autumn tour of inspection doing the Corean frontier, in concort with a Corean official according to regulation. The territories of China and Corea being livided from each other only by a river, it is a standing rule that the boundary be patrolled once in each quarter, and that in the summer and autumn quarters a Corean functionary is to take part in this duty, for the surveillance of the settlers who have established themselves on the waste lands of the marches. THE CHINA REVIEW.

TATHE whilely-expressed regret at the discontinuance of Notes & Queries on China and Japan, has induced the publishers of this journal to issue a publication similar in object and style, but slightly modified in certain details.

THE CHINA REVIEW, or Notes and Queries on the Far East, is issued at intervals of two months, each number containing about 60 octavo pages, occasionally illustrated with lithographs, photographs, woodcuts, do., should the papers published demand, and the circulation justify, such extra matter.

The aubscription is fixed at $6.50 postage paid; per annum, payable by non-residents in Hongkong half-yearly in advance.

The publication includes papers original and selected upon the Arts and Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, Bistory, Literature, Mythology, Manners and Costoms, Natural History, Religion, &c., &c., of China, Japan, Mongoliu, Tibet, the Eastern Archipologo and the "Far East" generally. A more detailed list of subjects upon which contributions are especially invited is incorporated with each number. Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, French, German, Spanish, Italian or Portuguese, are admissible. Eudeavours are made to present a resume in each number of the contents of the most recent works bearing on Chinese matters. Great attention is also paid to the Review department.

Notes and Replies are classified together as "Notes" thead references being given, when furnished, to previous Notes or Queries), as are also those queries which though asking for information, furnish new or unpublished details concerning the matter in hand. It is desirable to make the Queries proper as brief and as much to the point as possible.

The China Review for July and August, 1875, is at hand. It says that forty-two essays were sent in to compute for the best paper on the advantages of 'Christianity for the development of a State. All our learned societies should subscribe to this scholarly and enterprising Review. It is a sixty paged, hi-monthly repertory of what scholars are ascertaining about China. The lecture on Chinese Poetry-in this volume is Mone worth the price of the leview. Address China Review, Hongkong.-Northern Christian Advocate (U.S.)

Trubner's Oriental Record contains the tollowing notice of the China Review : _ " This in the title of a publication, the first number of which has lately reached us from Hongkong, where it has been set on foot as in some respects a continuation of Notes and Overies on China and Japan, the extinction of which usoful serial a year or two ago has been much regretted in Europe as well as In China. Thepresent publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, somewhat similar to that which has been filled in India by the Calcutta Review. The great degree of attention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature, antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, rendering some such chaunel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable: and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked for from the members of the foreign consular services, the Uninese Customs' corps, and the missionary body, among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now assiduously cultivated, and who are severally represented in the first number of the lieview by papers highly creditable to their respective authors. In a paper on Dr. Legge's She King, by the Rev. E. J. Eitel, to which the place of honour is deservedly given, an excellent summary is presented of the chronological problems and arguments involved in connexion with this important work. Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and freshness of style; and an account of the career of the Chinese poet-statesman of the cloventh century, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. C. Bowra, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Beside notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice that "Notes" and "Queries" are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that this opening for contributions on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary zeal to that which was displayed during the lifetime of its predecessor in the field, and that the China Review may receive the support necessary to insure its continuance. The publication is intended to appear every two months, and will form a substantial octavo magazine.

THE CHINESE MAIL.

This paper is now issued every day. The subscription is fixed at Four Dollars per annum delivered in Hongkong, or Seven Dollars Fifty Cents including postage to Coast ports. It is the first Chinese Newspaper ever issued under purely native direction. The chief support of the paper is of course derived from the native community, amongst whom also are to be found the guarantors and securities necessary to place it on a business and legal footing. The projectors, basing their estimates upon the most reliable information from the various Ports in China and Japan, from Australia, California, Singapore, Penang, Saigon, and other places frequented by the Chinese, - consider themselves iustified in guaranteeing an ultimate circulation of between 3,000 and 4,000 copies. The advantages offered to advertisers are therefore unusually great, and the foreign community generally will find it to their interest to avail themselves of

The field open to a paper of this description-conducted by native efforts, but progressive and anti-obstructive in toneis almost limitless. It on the one hand commands Chinase belief and interest while on the other it deserves every aid that can be given to it by foreigners. Like English journals it contains Editorials. with Local, Shipping, and Commercial News and Advertisements. Subscription orders for either of the
